The defendant was arrested on December 13, 2010, after being charged with Conspiracy to Possess With Intent to Distribute Cocaine and Cocaine Base, in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 846. Defendant Edwards appeared before the Honorable E. Clifton Knowles, U.S. Magistrate Judge, on December 16, 2010, for a detention hearing. The Court ordered the defendant be detained based on risk of flight and danger to the community. The defendant, by and through counsel, appealed the Order of Detention, and on January 7, 2011, the Honorable Aleta Trauger, U.S. District Judge, ordered the defendant be released on bond and pretrial supervision with special conditions.

This case was reassigned to Your Honor on September 28, 2012.

Special Conditions of Pretrial Release:

Please reference the attached Order Setting Conditions of Release.

New Violation:

Defendant shall not violate any federal, state, or local law while on release.

On approximately November 14, 2012, the defendant was notified that there was an outstanding warrant in Clarksville, Tennessee, for his arrest for Theft of a Vehicle. The defendant turned himself into authorities, and was released on bond. Mr. Cotton notified this officer of the new arrest in a timely manner.

On January 23, 2013, the case was nolle prosequi in the Montgomery County, Tennessee, General Sessions Court.

Probation Officer's Actions:

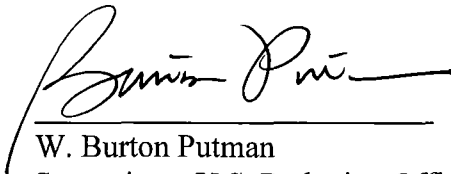

This officer continued to monitor the status of this case until the disposition on January 23, 2013. It should be noted that this defendant has otherwise remained in compliance since his release in January 2011. He has had no positive drug screens, and no additional violations. This officer will continue to closely monitor the defendant's compliance with the conditions of his release. He is scheduled to go to trial on April 23, 2013.

Violating any of the foregoing conditions of release may result in the immediate issuance of a warrant for your arrest, a revocation of your release, an order of detention, a forfeiture of any bond, and a prosecution for contempt of court and could result in imprisonment, a fine, or both.

While on release, if you commit a federal felony offense the punishment is an additional prison term of not more than ten years and for a federal misdemeanor offense the punishment is an additional prison term of not more than one year. This sentence will be consecutive (i.e., in addition to) to any other sentence you receive.

It is a crime punishable by up to ten years in prison, and a $250,000 fine, or both, to: obstruct a criminal investigation; tamper with a witness, victim, or informant; retaliate or attempt to retaliate against a witness, victim, or informant; or intimidate or attempt to intimidate a witness, victim, juror, informant, or officer of the court. The penalties for tampering, retaliation, or intimidation are significantly more serious if they involve a killing or attempted killing.

If, after release, you knowingly fail to appear as the conditions of release require, or to surrender to serve a sentence, you may be prosecuted for failing to appear or surrender and additional punishment may be imposed. If you are convicted of:

- (1) an offense punishable by death, life imprisonment, or imprisonment for a term of fifteen years or more – you will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than 10 years, or both;
